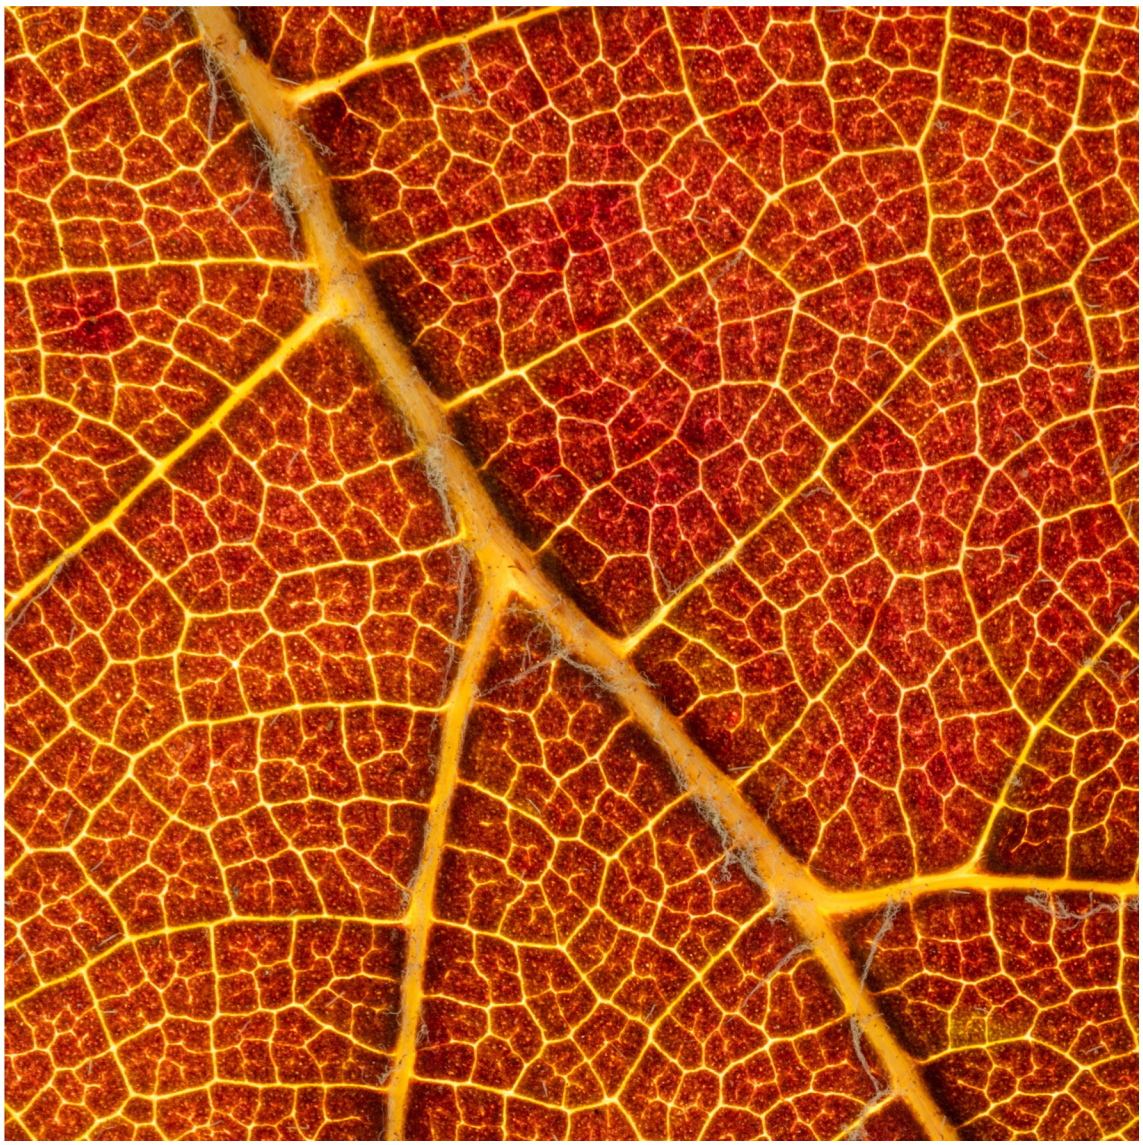
Relazione



La nuova parola buona è RELAZIONE

Ogni tanto possiamo riconoscere una stretta relazione tra eventi che , a prima vista , potrebbero sembrare del tutto slegati .

Ero in vacanza in Sardegna

e ho incontrato il triste cimitero di alberi forgiato dai roghi dei mesi scorsi nella provincia di Oristano .

Gli incendi hanno arso tutto ciò che incontravano , notte e giorno .

Chilometri e chilometri di territorio incenerito .

Gli  unici colori  chiari sotto il  cielo azzurro :

il  manto delle strade , le  lapidi dei  cimiteri misteriosamente non toccate  dalle  fiamme , le  balle di fieno donate da  agricoltori di  altre  zone che  punteggiavano di  oro i  campi di calcio  delle parrocchie  .

Lungo  una  via  che  conduce  al mare , ho incontrato un' altra scena dolorosa .

Due signori di Ancona , marito e  moglie  , erano  usciti di strada con  la loro potente motocicletta , pochi minuti prima  che arrivassi .

È stato necessario l' intervento di due ambulanze .

Un altro motociclista diceva che i due 2

non andavano molto veloce

e che in quel  punto anche a lui era parso di volare il giorno prima .

il motivo dell' incidente era facile da capire :

le ceneri  accumulate sul ciglio della strada hanno  reso pericolosa la  curva  per  biciclette e  moto  .

La perdita di ulivi antichi , di lecci e  sughereti , oltre a impoverire l'  economia  locale e aumentare i rischi idrogeologici , era ben correlata con  l' incidente dei signori marchigiani .

Interazioni come questa ci fanno comprendere come funziona la natura :

il mondo è tutto un continuo interagire .

Siamo immersi -

e lo capiamo meglio in questo tempo di pandemia - in una fitta rete di relazioni tra noi e il mondo e , per questo , il destino della realtà in cui viviamo ci riguarda e ci interessa .

Invece , possiamo avere coscienza che tutti gli esseri viventi sono in relazione con l' ambiente , che gli elementi chimici e biochimici interagiscono con altri elementi naturali e artificiali , e che questo discorso vale per ogni prospettiva si usi :

l' economia parla di relazioni economiche , in psicologia le personalità individuali non sono slegate dagli spazi relazionali ...

La stessa memoria ,

quella che ci permette di pensare agli alberi bruciati e agli incidenti stradali , è l' immagine impressa delle relazioni stabilite col mondo e con gli altri .

La nuova parola buona è Relazione .

Siamo più consapevoli della vertiginosa leggerezza della vita quando riconosciamo la fitta rete di relazioni di cui è fatto il nostro io , la nostra società ,

la nostra vita culturale , spirituale e politica .
